Hi Lightworkers!

Thank you for letting me connect with you once again. As I write this, they are tearing up the street in front of my house with huge loud machinery. I feel this vision in front of me is a metaphor of what is going on with a lot of people's lives—their foundations and current paths are being broken up and they are forced to build new ones.

One resounding theme that seems to keep surfacing lately is that the truth is prevailing. Illusion and delusions are no longer being tolerated. The truth keeps coming out in spite of concealment. This is happening on personal as well as governmental levels. Most people are no longer content to be in relationships, career paths or situations they feel are charades. These pretenses have restricted their freedoms for too long and now they are facing reality head on!

This seems to be happening to people in many different ways. Some are just waking up one day and realizing they want more in their life. Others are deciding that something in their life is no longer satisfying and the fears that were holding them back are no longer as formidable.

So if you feel like your life is being shaken up, you're not alone!! We're all going through it together. Ask for the Divine and the angels to shine the light on areas in your life where reality is being compromised by illusion or suppression. Keep moving forward with confidence and integrity. You are fully supported by the Divine no matter how things may appear on the surface. Remember the truth will set you free!!!

You are all wonderful inspirations. Thank you for spreading the Light! May Divine Showers of Peace, Healing, Joy and Light shine on you and your loved ones!

Angel Hugs,
Janice

Message from Archangel Michael

Joyful Greetings Lightworkers!

I am Archangel Michael and wish to address the energies that changes bring into your lives.

In many people's lives dramatic shifts are taking place. Spirituality has replaced many diversions for numerous people and those just starting on the spiritual path are looking for more meaning in their lives.

Many of you are changing jobs, ending relationships, beginning new ones or moving to new places. Many of you are beginning new lives with new beliefs and new dreams.

It is a time of transformation and new light. Nothing is happening without reason. Some may wonder why situations are unraveling now. This is because it is time. For what is not for the Highest Good will be harder and harder to maintain. Those who refuse to recognize this will have the hardest time. They will continue to try to force situations to work by refusing to let go.

For those that can let go of the old, the transformation will be brilliant. It will actually be easier to move towards dreams that were previously thought of as unattainable than it will be to maintain cold comfort. As you move forward to greet the bounty that lies ahead, doors of opportunity will be opening as doors to the mundane shut behind you. Graciously recognize and embrace the support from the universe coming your way.

But, as all you know, change is work and can bring about fear. There is a natural resistance to change that can make it a challenge to move ahead. For instance some of you have had job endings and will need to truly draw on the talents and gifts the Holy Spirit bestowed on you to create your own career path. As your world becomes more technical-dependent, it will be easier to move into more non-traditional careers. More importantly, there will be less traditional jobs available as time goes on so it will be advantageous to create your own niche. This is truly a blessing because this creates many opportunities to do more alternative work that have dwindled since the beginning of the era sometimes called the "industrial revolution."

For, do you truly think that the Creator gifts you with talents without also giving you opportunities to make a livelihood on doing what you love? These gifts were not given so you could toil away in mediocrity, using all your energy to make the affluent more prosperous. It honors your Creator to understand that your unique talents and gifts are your personal calling. Not following your calling is to reject the gifts you were blessed with. You may choose to express your gifts in many ways depending on your individual talents in art, communications, gathering information, writing, teaching, speaking, organizing, introducing, creating structure, healing, inventing, parenting, performing, analyzing, engineering, discovering, counseling, advising—more than can ever be listed here as there are so many gifts and ways to draw on them.

If you are unsure of what your special gifts are, think about what you love to do. What are you good at? For what do others always seek advice from you? What do you feel you give to others around you? What do you enjoy doing and feel you do well? The answers will all point to what your various gifts are. Almost all of you have more than one gift and should think of ways to bring them all together. Don't look at this as an overwhelming chore for finding your calling will bring you deeper self-knowledge and true joy in living a life with purpose.

Live in your Light and let it shine! The Light will bless all who come into contact with you.

The angels and the holy spirits stand by your side. The Divine resides within and in all creation.

Know that I, Archangel Michael, am always only a thought away for all humans, animals and life on earth.

*In Light, in Love and in Spirit
Archangel Michael*
